

Figure 1 displays a series of 12 line drawings illustrating the development of a child's drawing of a person from age 2 to age 10. The drawings are arranged vertically, with the youngest at the top and the oldest at the bottom. Each drawing is labeled with an age and a description of the features.

- 2 years: A simple vertical line with a dot for a head.
- 3 years: A vertical line with a dot for a head and a small circle for a nose.
- 4 years: A vertical line with a dot for a head, a small circle for a nose, and a small circle for a mouth.
- 5 years: A vertical line with a dot for a head, a small circle for a nose, a small circle for a mouth, and a small circle for an ear.
- 6 years: A vertical line with a dot for a head, a small circle for a nose, a small circle for a mouth, a small circle for an ear, and a small circle for a hair.
- 7 years: A vertical line with a dot for a head, a small circle for a nose, a small circle for a mouth, a small circle for an ear, a small circle for a hair, and a small circle for a shirt.
- 8 years: A vertical line with a dot for a head, a small circle for a nose, a small circle for a mouth, a small circle for an ear, a small circle for a hair, a small circle for a shirt, and a small circle for a pants.
- 9 years: A vertical line with a dot for a head, a small circle for a nose, a small circle for a mouth, a small circle for an ear, a small circle for a hair, a small circle for a shirt, a small circle for a pants, and a small circle for a shoes.
- 10 years: A vertical line with a dot for a head, a small circle for a nose, a small circle for a mouth, a small circle for an ear, a small circle for a hair, a small circle for a shirt, a small circle for a pants, a small circle for a shoes, and a small circle for a face.